We do a lot of Signature Breakfasts and bring in a lot of national guest speakers. We just had Adam Markel in to speak to 450 of the most prominent business leaders in Memphis. It was phenomenal. I love when we get emails immediately after saying "He was the best ever! Thank you so much for bringing him in!". One of the best things about Adam Markel is that he puts the stories together in a meaningful way, everything from resilience and how to become more resilient, and then helps you to unpack it and put it into actionable steps. You will love him and you will appreciate him! I'm happy to answer any questions you have about our experience with Adam Markel. Definitely do yourself a favor and bring him in for your organization.
